35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. In particular, Claim 6 is directed to only a computer program because the use of the phrase "when executed on a computer" does not positively recite that the program is "stored on a computer readable medium" as required by applicable case law.

Claims 1-5 and 9-16 are allowed.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
